

(Courtesy Photo)

Stantz Garden, 375 N. Montgomery Street, Spencer, IN

Gardening in town? You bet! Don't think that a small yard is boring. Lisa and Jon Stantz have an amazing variety of annuals, perennials, shrubs, and trees in their yard. And you're sure to find some surprises among the plants as well. Watch for Lisa's topiary creations in both the front and back yards! Visitors will enjoy seeing how these creative and knowledgeable homeowners have turned a town lot into an oasis.

Visit this and four other gardens – rain or shine – during the Owen County Garden Walk from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, June 10, 2012. Tickets are $5 per person; children 12 and under free. Get tickets and maps in advance at Duling Insurance, 430 North Fletcher Avenue, or from any Garden Club member. On the afternoon of the event, get tickets at the courthouse square in Spencer starting at 12:30, or follow the signs to a garden and purchase tickets there.

[Directions: From Morgan Street, turn north on Montgomery Street—at West, Parrish & Pedigo Funeral Home. Watch for sign at home on left.]